Our office is just outside the town centre of King's Lynn, easily accessible from the Hardwick Roundabout which is the junction of the A10 from Cambridge in the South, A47 from Peterborough in the West and A47 from Norwich in the East.

By Road

At Hardwick Roundabout, take the A149 towards Hunstanton, also signposted N. Lynn Industrial Area. Go straight over at the next 2 roundabouts. At Knight's Hill roundabout with the hotel of the same name, take the first exit towards King's Lynn. Follow this road for 3 miles, going past Asda on your left and straight over the crossroads just after. Continue past the industrial estate and car showrooms on your left, and the fire station on your right, until you see a filter lane to turn right at the traffic lights into Estuary Road. You'll see the Pink House at the bottom of the road – you can't miss it! Parking is available at the side of the building.
